LASPAU

Professional Development Program Faculty and University Business Officers

YEAR 2015- 2016

Office of Public Diplomacy — Embassy of the United States

The Office of Public Diplomacy of the Embassy of the United States of America is pleased to announce, in collaboration with LASPAU, its annual open competition for the Fulbright Faculty Development Program for faculty staff, professors, and researchers. Applicants must meet the following conditions:

- Be Haitian citizen currently residing in the country
- Have the appropriate academic background for the proposed program of study
- Committed to teaching and/or have professional experience as a teacher
- Hold a letter of appointment from a Haitian University
- Must have advanced English language skills (verbal and written)
- Commit to return to Haiti after completing the course of study
- Applicants with extensive or recent experience in the U.S. will not be considered, nor will Haitians with legal permanent residence (green card) status or U.S. passport holders be eligible.

Documents Required:

- Letter of Appointment
- A Copy of the first page of your passport
- U.S. University suggestions
- Cover Letter
- Curriculum Vitae
- Transcripts, Diploma, and Certificates

Application

Interested parties are requested to complete the application form and submit supporting documents online using the link below no later than May 1, 2015. Supporting documents may be submitted in French; however finalists will be required to translate all documents into English.

https://laspauapplications.communityforce.com/Funds/Search.aspx

U.S. Embassy - Office of Public Diplomacy / Fulbright Selection Committee
Boulevard 15 Octobre, Tabarre 41, Port-au-Prince