Knowledge:
Must have knowledge in design and construction practices with U.S. mechanical codes and specifications, thorough professional knowledge in mechanical design calculations and criteria, preparation of engineering drawings and specification.

Skills and Abilities:
--MS Office package user for word processing and analysis is required.
--Ability to use engineering management software, and maintain daily construction inspection logs is required.
--Ability to create mechanical engineering cost estimates, review mechanical construction drawings for code compliance and provide briefings to the PD on mechanical issues is required.
--Ability to use AutoCAD to review drawings is required.

SELECTION PROCESS
When equally qualified, US Citizen EFMs and US Veterans will be given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate address the required qualifications above in the application.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA
1. Management will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget, and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current Ordinarily Resident employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report are not eligible to apply.
3. Currently employed US Citizen EFMs who hold a Family Member Appointment (FMA) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 calendar days of their employment.
4. Currently employed NORs hired under a Personal Services Agreement (PSA) are ineligible to apply for advertised positions within the first 90 calendar days of their employment unless currently hired into a position with a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.
5. Current Ordinarily Resident employees must serve in the same position for a period of 52 weeks before being eligible to apply for advertised positions.

TO APPLY
Interested applicants for this position must submit the following for consideration of the application:

1. Application for Employment as a Locally Employed Staff or Family Member, DS-174
2. Candidates who claim US Veterans preference must provide a copy of their Form DD-214 with their application. Candidates who claim conditional US Veterans preference must submit documentation confirming eligibility for a conditional preference in hiring with their application.
3. Any other documentation (e.g. education diplomas, essays, certificates, awards) that addresses the qualification requirements of the position as listed above.
