Promoting Security through Diplomacy and Development: The Fiscal Year 2011 International Affairs Budget

U.S. Department of State
February 25, 2010

Our fiscal year 2011 request for the State Department and USAID totals $52.8 billion. That's a $4.9 billion increase over 2010. Of that increase, $3.6 billion will go to supporting efforts in the front-line states – Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Iraq. Other funding will grow by $1.3 billion, which is a 2.7 percent increase that will help us address global challenges, strengthen partnerships, and ensure that the State Department and USAID are equipped with the right people and resources.

A World Free of Nuclear Weapons

US State Department
February 2010

Since the first atomic bombs exploded in 1945, some have tried to rid the world of nuclear weapons. President Obama has embraced this goal with new vigor. This issue of eJournal USA examines the challenges to achieving nuclear disarmament. It conveys the hopes of some thinkers, and explains the doubts of others.
