- The U.S. Mission in Turkey invites Turks with a connection to the United States, and especially U.S. Exchange Program alumni, to submit proposals. If you are applying with or on behalf of an NGO, you can apply for up to $5,000. If you are applying as an individual, you can apply for up to $2,000.
- Language: Proposals to the U.S mission in Ankara must be submitted in English
- The project duration should be a minimum of 3 months and a maximum of 12 months.

Deadlines and Key Dates:

Submission: Please email your proposal to pasistanbul@state.gov.

Additional documents required for NGO applications;

- Copy of the applicant organization’s registration status
- Most recent annual financial statement listing income sources (audit if available)

Assessment Criteria

- Targeting: Projects should improve and expand the opportunities, skills, world views and outcomes of the target audience
- Innovation: The U.S Mission in Turkey is particularly interested in projects which introduce a new approach, process, or technology in tackling an issue affecting a community.
- Sustainability: Demonstrates the organizational capacity, viability of partnerships, and the longer term financial viability of the project (i.e. the organization's capacity to continue the project beyond the initial funding period).
- Results and Measurability: Demonstrates a quantifiable, direct impact on the target group with clearly articulated mechanisms to measure the project's effectiveness in reaching them within the timeframe of implementation.
- Cost Sharing: Demonstrates cost sharing (funds or in kind contributions are acceptable) from the organizations involved in the proposal. Cost sharing is required and should be clearly indicated and adequately calculated in the budget.
- Ownership and Community Involvement: Acceptance and ownership from local implementing/beneficiary communities; creates synergies, emphasizes community contributions and utilizes the strengths and the resources of the respective communities.
- Promoting Gender Equity: Promotes the equal inclusion and active participation of women.

Promotion and Visibility Guidelines:

As this is a grant program funded by the U.S. Mission in Turkey, the grantees are required to put the Embassy logo on all promotional material and related documents that are visible to third parties.

Monitoring and Evaluation

All grants will be monitored and evaluated by the U.S. Embassy in Ankara. The alumni programs coordinator will be the main point of contact for all grantees. Applicants whose grant proposals are accepted by the Alumni Small Grants Program Committee are required to submit an interim and final narrative and financial reports.

The Embassy will make grant payment in two installments. The first payment will cover 80 % of the grant and the remaining 20 % will be paid after the submission of the final report of the project.
