"The internship at the Consulate was a fantastic insight into the world of diplomacy and US/Australia relations. I really valued the level of responsibility I was given in the work I was doing as it gave me the chance to actually experience what it is like to work in diplomacy. Further, it was so interesting to speak to diplomats and representatives from all the different sections of the Consulate, who were all so willing to give up their time to explain the work they do. Overall it was an invaluable and fascinating experience."
