Apply for “Model United Nations 2013” in the Qatar

The U.S. Embassy in Algiers is pleased to announce the conference "Model United Nations 2013." Organized by Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service in Qatar, the conference will take place from 21 to 24 February 2013 at the Marriott Hotel, Doha.

Model United Nations (MUN) is a simulation of the United Nations run by students, where participants assume the roles of diplomats to gain an insight into international politics and diplomacy. The MUN conference participants are students from all over the world, who meet at MUN in teams of six students accompanied by one or two teachers.

This program aims to be a forum for involved students to discuss current global issues and understand the world of international politics and decision-making. For this program, we are seeking high school students with leadership potential, an interest in community service, a fairly good command of the English language, maturity, flexibility, and integrity. They must be open-minded, sociable, and motivated to be active participants. All the participants are required to dedicate at least 12 hours per week in order to prepare the conference.
