American Basketball Coaches Return to Algiers

The director of the American organization “One on One Basketball,” Arthur Jackson, and a group of professional American coaches, including a former NBA player, will be conducting basketball workshops in Algiers from March 17 – 22. This visit comes as the third stage in a series of exchanges meant to enhance cooperation in the realm of sports. The “One on One” representatives will work with Algerian basketball coaches and players over a period of six days. They will conduct clinics for 60 coaches and for 120 young players, ages 14-16. This program is supported by the US Embassy in Algiers in collaboration with the Ministry of Youth and Sports and the Algerian Basketball Federation (FABB).

Journalists are invited to attend the Opening Ceremony, which will take place on Saturday, March 17 at 09h30 at Salle Staoueli. Representatives from the US Embassy, Ministry of Youth and Sports, and FABB will be in attendance.

“One on One Basketball” was founded in 1991 and is a comprehensive, year-round basketball and event management company. It provides skilled instruction to players of all ages and levels.
