

« Youth Leadership Program » SUMMER 2012

YLP is an intensive five week summer program for Algerian teenagers. It includes one week of intensive English language and orientation instruction followed by a 4 week study program in the US from June 15-16 July 2012

The goals of this program are:

- To promote mutual understanding between the American and Algerian youth.
- To develop a sense of leadership potential, civic responsibility, and commitment to community development among youth.
- To strengthen English speaking skills
- To foster relationships between Americans and Algerians with a focus on respect for diversity of ethnic, socioeconomic, and religious backgrounds

The program is designed for high school students between the ages of 15 and 17 who:

- Have a demonstrated leadership aptitude and an interest in community service
- Have sufficient proficiency in English to communicate effectively
- Exhibit flexibility, maturity, integrity, good social skills, and open mindedness
- Have the necessary motivation to be both active and successful exchange participants

- Will attend at least one more year of secondary school after the program (e.g will not graduate in summer 2012).

Deadline to receive applications is April 30th, 2012

Applications should be submitted to PASAlgiersYouth@state.gov

Questions regarding the application and selection process should be addressed to AmaroucheZ@state.gov
