Press Release

VISIT THE U.S. EMBASSY ALGIERS' BOOTH AT THE 2013 ALGIERS INTERNATIONAL BOOK FAIR

U.S. Embassy Algiers will take part in the Algiers International Book Fair. Our booth will have information on study in the U.S., scholarship and exchange programs, and more. Come and check out a sampling of the English language books and magazines we have available year-round in our Information Resource Center (IRC) and in our American Corners.

This year, we will feature special themes so that visitors can speak to people regarding:

- English Language Fellows (October 31 and November 5): Meet our English Language Fellows from 13:00 to 16:00 and learn about opportunities to study English. We would love to meet Algerian teachers and students!
- Consular Days (November 1, 2, and 4): Do you have visa questions? From 13:00 to 16:00 our visa experts will demystify the application process. Learn about student visas and more.
- American Corners (November 7 and 8): What is an American Corner? Come find out and meet some of the staff from American Corners Algiers and American Corners Oran.

Stop by our booth to join our Embassy mailing list and find out how to become a member of the IRC.
