Program Overview - Alumni Small Grants

After successfully completing TEA, alumni are eligible to apply for small grants.

This grant program is designed to complement the TEA goal of improving teaching in participating countries.

Program Overview - Alumni Small Grants

Examples of projects implemented by past program alumni include:

- A TEA alumnus of Kyrgyzstan was first awarded an alumni small grant to deliver workshops focusing on problem-solving, goal-setting, healthy living, and positive relationships to disabled students, peer leaders and their teachers in 2009. The project is currently being extended to 30 additional students and will focus on leadership through technology in collaboration with the Digital Youth Dialogue program which recently brought internet access to the region.

Program Overview - Alumni Small Grants

Examples of projects implemented by past program alumni include:

- A TEA alumnus of Senegal successfully delivered a workshop on Teaching Scaffolding Writing Skills. Each of the 38 participants was trained in the content method as well as equipped with the skills necessary to deliver the workshop in their respective schools. The estimated indirect beneficiaries of the training is over 200 Senegalese teachers of English, and up to 8,000 students!
