

Winners of the Future Leaders Scholarship: U.S.

Hi, my name is Facundo and I am from Trelew, Chubut. I just entered my last year of high school. I am seventeen years old. I love swimming and writing literature. Winning this scholarship means that I will be able to accomplish a dream that otherwise would never have been possible. I know this experience will be an important step in my life, and in the lives of all the scholarship winners. I hope this will be a unique experience.

Hello, everyone calls me Mili, from Salta. I am a high school student and I am very passionate about the field of medicine. I love music, reading and cooking. Winning this scholarship is not only a huge honor but also a dream come true. I am so happy and excited. Thank you so much!

My name is Ceci. I am 17 years old, from Cordoba, currently enrolled at Monserrat High School. What I like most about studying there is the school's humanistic principles, history and, of course, my friends! I am considering studying Language Arts after I graduate, and dedicating my career to writing, researching and teaching. This scholarship is very important to me, not only to perfect my English, but also because it will give me the opportunity to study hard and get to know the birthplace and culture of my favourite authors. I think it's awesome to be able to live and share things with a new family and new people. I think this is the best way to connect with others and to really get to know a country - two things that may not have been possible without this opportunity. Thank you so much!

My name is Manuel. I am 17 years old, from Capital Federal, where I attend technical school with a special interest in graphic design. Besides going to school, I also train in the art of trapeze several times a week. To have won this scholarship is an incredible feeling, and even more exciting considering that since the time I applied I have had to overcome various obstacles. For fear of not being chosen, I did not want to get over excited. There for, learning that I was chosen as a winner gives me not only a great joy, but also many expectations for this trip and this awesome opportunity.
