

U.S. Consulate General Sydney Foreign National Student Internship Program

The U.S. Consulate General Sydney is looking for non-American undergraduate university students to experience working alongside the Consulate's American and Australian employees as they work on the day-to-day business, political, media, and organizational issues of the United States and Australia, over the 2014-15 Australian summer holidays.

This program aims to establish, promote and maintain relationships between young Australians and Americans as each become leaders in their respective countries. The internship will provide students with valuable educational and practical experience by assisting the U.S. Consulate General in accomplishing its mission goals.

APPLICATIONS OPEN on July 10, 2014 & CLOSE on Friday, August 10, 2014.

Further information will be available at <http://canberra.usembassy.gov/job-opportunities.html>