

The Diplomatic Academy of Vienna, the Kuratorium Sicheres Österreich & the U.S. Embassy cordially invite you to

Cyberaggression: Implications for Developing Cybersecurity Policies

A discussion with Richard J. Harknett, University of Cincinnati & Alexander Janda, Kuratorium Sicheres Österreich

Moderated by Jane Bocklage, U.S. Embassy Vienna

Tuesday, May 5, 2015

6:30 pm

Information on the venue and R.S.V.P: programs@usembassy.at Richard J. Harknett is Head of the Department of Political Science at the University of Cincinnati. Professor Harknett has lectured internationally and given presentations and briefings to government agencies, including the U.S. Defense and State Departments, and Congressional offices on Capitol Hill. He has also testified recently on cybersecurity to the Ohio General Assembly and serves on the State of Ohio's Cybersecurity, Education, and Economic Development Council. Dr. Harknett received his PhD from The Johns Hopkins University and BA from Villanova University. The author of over 40 publications in the area of international relations theory and international security studies, Professor Harknett is currently Visiting Lecturer at the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna.

Alexander Janda has been Secretary General of the Kuratorium Sicheres Österreich, a non-profit organization dedicated to crime prevention and awareness building, since 2014. Other functions include Chairman of the Austro-American Institute of Education (AAIE) in Vienna and lecturer at the University of Applied Sciences in Wiener Neustadt (Master Program in Strategic Security Studies) as well as at various U.S. colleges and universities. Dr. Janda studied Political Science at the University of Vienna and at the University of California in Los Angeles and has worked as political researcher and consultant.

diplomatische
akademie wien

Vienna School of International Studies
École des Hautes Études Internationales de Vienne

U.S. Embassy Vienna

Follow us on

YouTube

By participating you consent to the publication of images/videos taken during the event.