

U.S. Embassy Vienna

U.S. Embassy Vienna
together with Today's Voices presents:

A roundtable discussion with

Sally Helgesen

Women's Leadership: Visions, Connections, Intentions and Presence

September 10th, 6 pm, Amerika Haus

Admission is free. RSVP to: todayvoices@usembassy.at

Come join us for a presentation and discussion on the importance of women's leadership in today's world. Join us also for a reception after the discussion.

Sally Helgesen is an internationally acclaimed author, speaker and consultant, most notably known for her best-selling book The Female Advantage: Women's Ways of Leadership, a classic work on women's leadership styles. She is ranked by the Leadership Gurus as #15 in its survey of the world's most influential leadership experts. Helgesen develops and delivers leadership programs to corporations and firms around the world, such as Microsoft, The World Bank and the Global Forum on Women. She is also a contributing editor to strategy+business magazine and has been featured in Fortune, The New York Times and Business Week.

Like us on

Follow us on

Watch us on

