

U.S. Embassy Vienna

U.S. Embassy Vienna together with Today's Voices presents:

Justice for My Sister

A roundtable discussion on Human Rights with Kimberly Bautista

Tuesday, December 16, 2014 at 6pm

Amerika Haus

Please RSVP to: todayvoices@usembassy.at

Come join us for a lively discussion with renowned human rights activist Kimberly Bautista. Refreshments and snacks will be provided at a reception afterwards.

Kimberly Bautista is a media arts activist based in Los Angeles. Her previous work, both in activism and video, included projects in California, Ecuador, Colombia, and Guatemala and focused on immigrant, worker, refugee, and women's rights. Bautista's documentaries have been used by numerous organizations, such as the UN Refugee Agency, to induce social change. Grants for her work include the Princess Grace Award and the Kallick Community Service Award, among others.

Like us on

Follow us on

Watch us on

