

The U.S. Embassy, the American Women's Association, the Institute for Entrepreneurship & Innovation and the Entrepreneurship Center Network cordially invite you to:

FEMALE ENTREPRENEURSHIP – INVESTING IN DIVERSITY A Discussion with Monica Dodi, Women's Venture Capital Fund

Tuesday, March 10, 2015

6:30 p.m.

R.S.V.P.: programs@usembassy.at

Monica Dodi is a Co-Founder and Managing Director of the Women's Venture Capital Fund. The Fund capitalizes on the expanding pipeline of women entrepreneurs leading gender diverse teams and creating capital efficient, high growth companies in digital media and sustainable products and services.

Having founded and built four successful companies including MTV Europe and AOL's Entertainment Asylum, Monica Dodi is a passionate believer that there are opportunities today for women to create new businesses with innovative products and services and that those opportunities have been growing in appeal as career paths and a chance for women to get excited about their jobs and build personal wealth and satisfaction.

U.S. Embassy Vienna

By participating you consent to the publication of images/videos taken during the event.

Follow us on:    