

Denzel Pratt
Grand Prize Art Winner
St. Augustine's College
Grade 10

My piece demonstrates the wide audience affected by the dream that Martin Luther King Jr. had for all races. He wanted everyone regardless of race to be equal and live together in peace. So that is why I drew people of different races, in bondage, and Martin Luther King Jr. is holding the key to their freedom.