

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice 23 – April 4, 2013
Note: Updated Travel Alert Map

The U.S. Embassy has updated the Travel Alert Map for Bahrain to more accurately reflect current circumstances and areas of concern due to civil unrest and demonstrations. All U.S. citizens should familiarize themselves with the geographic boundaries defined on the map.

Please see below for a map. Areas shaded in red are off-limits to U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members at all times. U.S. Citizen Embassy employees and their family members are permitted to travel in the areas shaded in yellow during daylight hours only.

Tomorrow, April 5, 2013, 4:00pm (1600) an opposition group has called for demonstrations along the Budaiya Highway in the Diraz-Barbar village area. Anticipate that Budaiya Highway from Budaiya east towards the Burgerland Roundabout will likely be effected during the afternoon and evening hours. It is possible that traffic along Sheikh Khalifa bin Salman to the East and Janabiya Highway to the Southwest will be affected as well. Police activity leading into these areas is likely. Avoid the Budaiya Highway. (Yellow Oval)

Tomorrow, April 5, 2013, at an unknown time an opposition group has called for a gathering to take place in the Sar village area. Anticipate that Sar Avenue and Avenue 35 will likely be affected during the evening hours. Police activity leading into this area is possible. (Yellow Circle)

Spontaneous demonstrations take place in Bahrain from time to time in response to world events or local developments. United States citizens should keep current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surroundings at all times. If you encounter a large public gathering or demonstration, depart the vicinity immediately.

It is important to note that there have been no direct attacks on U.S. citizens in Bahrain to date. That said, spontaneous and at times violent anti-government demonstrations occur in some neighborhoods, particularly at night and on weekends. These demonstrations have included blockades of major highways with burning debris and establishment of unofficial checkpoints. Participants have thrown rocks and Molotov cocktails and used various other homemade weapons, including isolated use of improvised explosive devices. The Ministry of Interior maintains official checkpoints in some areas and routinely uses tear gas and stun grenades along with birdshot and other crowd control measures against demonstrators. Violent clashes between security forces and demonstrators can make travel in and around Bahrain dangerous without advance warning.

We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. U.S. citizens are therefore urged to avoid the areas of demonstrations if possible, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations.

For the latest security information, U.S. citizens living and traveling abroad should regularly monitor the Department of State's Bureau of Consular Affairs Internet website at <http://travel.state.gov>, where the current Worldwide Caution, Country Specific Information for Bahrain, Travel Warnings and Travel Alerts can be found.
