U.S. Embassy Public Affairs Section Hosts Hari Raya Celebration

On July 29, the U.S. Embassy Bandar Seri Begawan Public Affairs Section hosted an event to celebrate Hari Raya which included a Welcome Reception for its new Public Affairs Officer, Catherine Muller.

The event was held at the VIP Hall on the 4th floor of the Rizqun International Hotel in Gadong.

Guests included Brunei Government officials, entrepreneurs, members from Non-Government Organizations (NGOs), U.S. program alumni, members of the media, and more.

Public Affairs Officer Catherine Muller stated, “This event is a great opportunity for me to learn about Brunei’s rich and vibrant culture, and to meet many of our contacts in the community who have been key partners for the Embassy across a wide range of programs and issues.”

Catherine continued, “I look forward to learning more about Brunei Darussalam, working alongside the local community, and strengthening the bilateral relationship of the United States and Brunei through our people-to-people ties.”
