

Fulbright FLTA Program Application Plagiarism Agreement

The FLTA Program seeks applicants that have developed a sense of personal integrity and are original thinkers. The following application includes several opportunities to express your own thoughts, ideas, and opinions in essay responses. Plagiarism in any of your answers to these questions will result in your disqualification from participating in the FLTA program.

From the Oxford English Dictionary:

"Plagiarism is the wrongful appropriation or purloining and publication as one's own, of the ideas, or the expression of the ideas of another"

Plagiarism will be understood to include any of the following:

Presenting wording, statistics or concepts as your own which should be attributed to someone else or to publications (online or offline). This includes, but is not limited to:

- o Copying the exact wording of a written source
- o Presenting material with alterations in wording
- o Paraphrasing the content of a source without citation

It is expected that your responses to essay questions in the following application will be your own work, and that use of outside sources will be kept to a minimum. Applicants do not have to use secondary sources for essays. However, any sources used in the construction of your responses must be cited.

By checking the box below, you are indicating that you understand both what actions constitute plagiarism in this application, and the consequences resulting from any plagiarism found in your submission.

- I have reviewed and understand the above information on the importance of presenting my own original work in the Fulbright FLTA program application. I agree to properly cite any outside sources from which I take words or ideas in the composition of my essay responses. I understand the consequences of plagiarism in my FLTA application.*
