Re: Gap Inc. Public Report on Responsible Sourcing in Myanmar

To Whom It May Concern:

Gap Inc. hereby submits the enclosed Public Report on Responsible Sourcing in Myanmar. This letter serves as our signed acknowledgement that we understand the attached Public Report will be made public and that none of the information presented in Gap Inc.'s Public Report is exempt from public disclosure under Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Exemption 4.

We have chosen to report on a voluntary basis understanding that the nature of our business in Myanmar, which consists of sourcing garments from third-party factories, does not require mandatory reporting under the U.S. Government's Responsible Investment Reporting Requirements. At the time of publishing this report, Gap Inc. does not own, lease or operate any offices or facilities in Myanmar. We have not stationed any personnel permanently in the country, nor paid any salaries of factory management or workers. As we understand it, Gap Inc.'s presence in Myanmar does not constitute a "New Investment" under the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) General License No. 17, meaning we are not subject to the mandatory reporting requirements.
