The U.S. Consulate General in Vancouver is offering internship opportunities for the summer. These are unpaid internships; as such, the Interns will not be considered employees of the U.S. Government nor be entitled to payment for their services.

Duties of the Position: The U.S. Department of State places a priority on Economic Statecraft – the importance of economics and market forces in United States foreign policy. After a brief orientation period, the intern will be involved in "on-the-job" training by working on a pre-defined project or projects relating to U.S./Canada trade development. Intern responsibilities may include: conducting market research and preparing market reports, drafting replies to trade inquiries, promoting trade events and recruiting Canadian companies for the participation in trade events, and facilitating connections for U.S. companies seeking commercial opportunities in Canada.

Additional Selection Criteria:

- Applicant must be at least 18 years of age at the time of appointment;
- Applicant must be in good academic standing at current educational institute (if applicable); and
- Applicant must be able to pass a medical exam and a U.S. non-sensitive security clearance and possess their own medical insurance.

To Apply:

Submit the following documentation prior to the closing date of the Vacancy Announcement:

- Completed Application form;
- Statement of Interest outlining objectives/motivations in seeking an internship and how one's academic courses and other experiences relate to the advertised position;
- Certified transcript and written permission from the educational institute; and
- If non-Canadian, copies of a valid study permit or other valid documents issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada which provides a student with legal status in Canada to undertake an unpaid internship.
