BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

This position will be required on an as-needed basis for any duties related to the reporting and program functions in the Executive, Consular, Political, Economic, ESTH, and Public Affairs sections. Incumbent performs a full range of duties depending on the needs of the request to include performing TDY trips to support various posts in the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs. The incumbent should expect to perform duties such as research, special projects and programs, and monitoring and reporting on developments in one or more of China's political/economic/science & health/public affairs sectors. The incumbent will be expected to provide support for visiting delegations of U.S. officials, interacting with Chinese government officials to arrange meeting schedules, agendas, and other logistical issues, accompanying the delegation to meetings, providing note taking and reporting as required. Other duties as assigned will be required. The person reports directly to the Office Management Specialist (OMS) Rover who will then assign the WAE to the requesting office. Further guidance and direction will be provided to the WAE based on the duties requested by the requesting office.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

Applicants must address each required qualification listed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not qualified.

EDUCATION: 4-year university degree in social sciences, economics, political science, international relations, law, humanities, history, foreign languages, or business is required.

EXPERIENCE: Two (2) years of previous experience in international relations, economic, political research and analysis, law, or government relations is required.

LANGUAGE: Level IV (Fluent) speaking/reading/writing in English is required.

SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

- Must be able to collect and analyze data and information from published and unpublished Chinese-related sources; to draft articles into both brief summaries and longer, more substantive, analytical reports; to demonstrate initiative and good judgment in identifying emerging issues with the potential to impact on U.S. interests.
- Ability to cultivate working-level contacts in relevant government ministries, research institutions, and media organizations.
- Ability to handle planning and logistics for delegations and programs.
- Must be able to prioritize among substantive competing demands from officers and various ranks.
- Must be highly proficient in word processing and familiar with spreadsheet and database software utilities.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: The complete position description listing all of the duties and responsibilities may be obtained by contacting the Human Resources Office (8531-4500).

SELECTION PROCESS: When qualified, applicants who are U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and/or preference-eligible U.S. Veterans are given a preference in hiring. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants make themselves known as having a hiring preference and specifically address the required qualifications above in their application.
