

American Citizen Bulletin

Message for U.S. Citizens

Free Tax Workshops – February 22, 2013 (Friday) and March 18, 2013 (Monday)

Update

Due to popular demand, the first session of the IRS Tax Workshop very quickly reached room capacity. In order to assist those that are not able to attend in person, the event will also be “live streamed” at <https://conx.state.gov/china>. To log on to this stream simply follow the directions below. In addition, for those unable to attend the event in person or view it live through the stream, the event will also be posted to Youku.com following the event.

Live IRS Tax Info Session: How to access the U.S. Embassy Beijing webstream site

1. Open your browser type the following address: <http://conx.state.gov/china>. It should open the following screen:

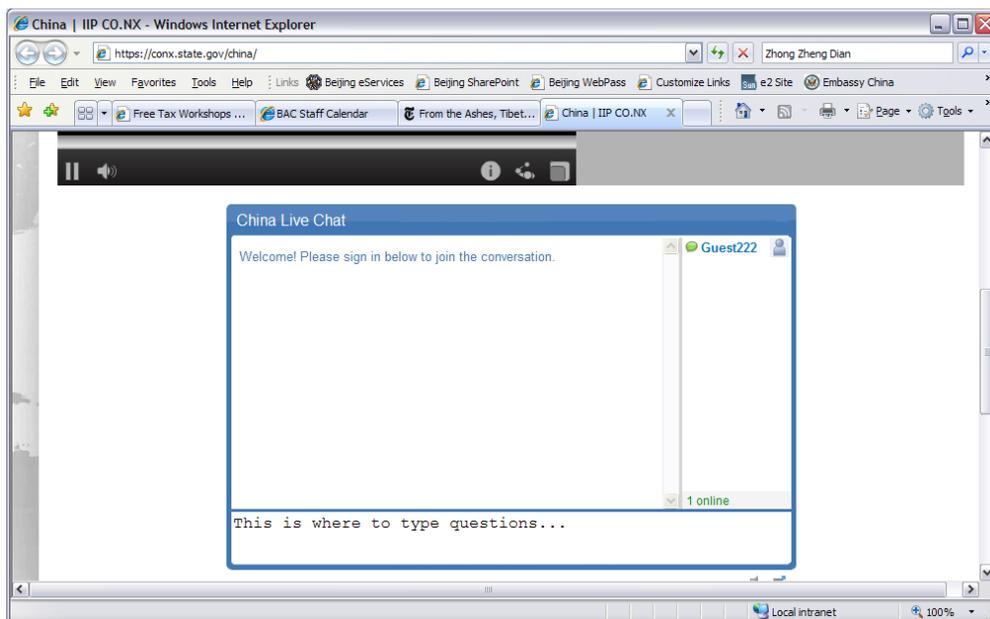

NOTE: Before the event begins, you will see the black screen with the yellow “stay tuned” message.

2. Scroll down the page to the “China Live Chat” screen and select “Guest” login. You may use the UserID provided in the box, or type one of your own.

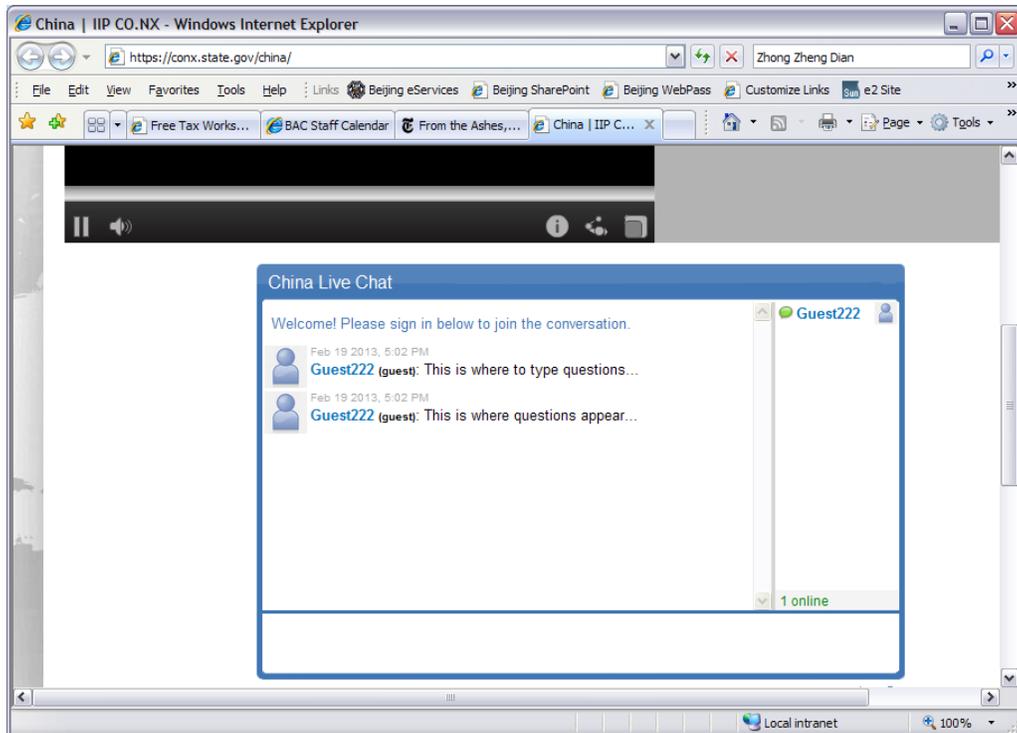

3. Once you log-in, you will see your user ID and icon appear in the right-hand column.
NOTE: After you login, please do not activate your webcam or microphone, as these will slow the stream speed.

4. Shortly before the event begins, the stream will go active and the audio and video will start. Once the event has begun, you may type questions into the box at the bottom of the login screen.

Questions will appear in the “China Live Chat” dialogue box. Other guest questions may also appear in the box as the event continues.

NOTE: The chat will be monitored. Some questions may be passed to the presenter during the Q&A portion of the event.

5. When you are ready to leave the chat, simply close the browser window that contains the CONX screen.