ALUMNI GRANTS PROGRAM 2012

U.S. Embassy Zagreb, in cooperation with the U.S. Alumni Community of Croatia, is opening a call for Alumni Grants for 2012. Through this program, the Embassy invites alumni of U.S. Government-sponsored programs to apply for funding of small scale projects, workshops and seminars. Grants are awarded to individual alumni/ae. In projects where a group of alumni are coordinating, one individual must be listed as the project leader, thereby the recipient of all funds. The maximum amount for a grant is $2500.

The program aims to promote the application of knowledge acquired in the United States, especially in the areas of development of sound business practices, the promotion of the free market and economic reforms, rule of law, human rights and freedom, public health and art/art management. Alumni are also welcome to propose projects in other areas of their expertise.

Preference will be given to:

- proposals having a clear vision of how the project can help the alumni community in Croatia;
- proposals clearly articulating the benefit of the project to Croatia as a whole;
- proposals encouraging US - Croatia scientific and professional exchange;
- proposals with cost-sharing (part of funding for the project requested or secured from other sources);
- proposals with a sound plan of follow-up activities and knowledge transfer to wider public.
