U.S. State Department Launches American English Website

The U.S. Department of State's Office of English Language Programs proudly announces launch of the American English website (<http://americanenglish.state.gov/>). The new website is a free resource center for teaching and learning about American English as a Foreign Language (EFL), exploring American culture, and encouraging conversation within the global EFL community.

This website provides a variety of engaging materials and resources for students and for teachers' professional development. Both teachers and students will find new ways to practice English and learn more about the United States.
