USFOL Volunteers Support the Encelia Foundation

On May 14, 2015, seven volunteers from the U.S. Forward Operating Location (USFOL) visited the children and staff of the Encelia Halfway House - formerly known as Kinderdorp Hebron - to assist with painting, cleaning and other tasks.

Encelia provides a temporary, safe environment for children in transition who struggle with a variety of social and behavioral challenges.

The USFOL team devoted three hours to rehabilitating the facilities and interacting with the children, demonstrating their long-standing appreciation for the hospitality received from the citizens of Curaçao.
