

The Consulate General of the United States in Curacao

is pleased to welcome you to a lecture by

Award-winning American filmmaker Benjamin Safdie

*On April 4, 2013
10:00 AM – 12:00 PM
Theatre Luna Blou*

The U.S. Consulate General on Curacao, in conjunction with the Curacao International Film Festival Rotterdam, is pleased to invite you to a special lecture by award-winning American director Benjamin Safdie on Thursday, April 4. During the presentation, he will discuss films that have influenced his career, including the immortal suspense film "A Man Escaped" by Robert Bresson. In addition, he will present excerpts from this film to demonstrate their effect on his filmmaking.

Mr. Safdie is a New York-based film director. His films have been accepted into the Cannes International Film Festival. The lecture will be held on April 4th at 10 AM at Teatro Luna Blou.

For more information, please contact InfoCuracao@state.gov