

United States Embassy Nicosia, Cyprus
Security Message for U.S. Citizens: Demonstrations in Nicosia

March 23, 2015

Local police report that up to 500 people are expected to participate in a demonstration at 3:00 pm today, March 23, at the Central Bank in Nicosia. The bank is located at Av. John Kennedy 80, Nicosia 1076, Cyprus, near the Cyprus Hilton.

The U.S. Embassy reminds U.S. citizens that even peaceful demonstrations can turn confrontational and possibly escalate into violence. You should monitor local media reports to stay apprised of when and where these demonstrations will take place, and avoid areas where these demonstrations are underway. The U.S. Embassy in Nicosia has advised employees and family members to avoid the locations where demonstrations may occur.

For additional information, refer to the “Travelers Checklist” on the State Department’s website. We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens travelling to or residing in Cyprus enroll in the Department of State’s Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at travel.state.gov. Enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the embassy to contact you in an emergency. If you don’t have internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. Embassy.

Regularly monitor the Department’s website where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution. Read the Country Specific Information for Cyprus. Contact the embassy for up-to-date information on travel restrictions. You can also call 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States and Canada or 1-202-501-4444 from other countries. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except U.S. federal holidays). Follow us on Twitter and Facebook.
