Enclosure: Scope of Work

Rydhave Security Upgrade Project Scope of Work

This project is to renovate/upgrade the external technical security system at American Embassy Copenhagen's Ambassador's residence, Rydhave.

Rydhave is a 3.64 acre enclosed compound situated in the suburbs of Copenhagen (Charlottenlund). Rydhave is a well-known landmark in Copenhagen. It is a historical residence, owned by the United States government since the end of World War II. Due to the close relationship between Denmark and the United States, the Ambassador is a well-known and public figure. In particular, the current Ambassador is extremely active in the Danish community. As a result of his high public profile and position, he has received numerous telephonic and written threats of violence.

The current Rydhave technical security network consists of two separate alarm systems. One system is the internal residential security alarm system. The second is an external sensor/camera system. There is also a 24/7 guard presence. The residential compound is fenced.

This project shall focus on upgrading the external system. The current system consists of two motion sensor zones and five remote controlled cameras. Two of the cameras are linked to the sensor system. This system is monitored by the guard on duty. It does not have a recording capability. The panic alarm is stationary.

The project shall consist of the following:

- Closed circuit television (CCTV) system that utilizes six (6) pan/tilt/zoom (PTZ) color IP addressable cameras, exact locations to be determined at a later date.
- Cameras to be recorded on a digital video recorder (DVR) for playback.
- PTZ cameras to be controllable from the same location as the DVR.
- One color monitor to have the capability of multi screen of all the cameras or to be a spot monitor.
- Cameras to be programmable motion detectors that report to the monitoring station with audible and visual alerts.
- Ability to have additional alarms inputs and cameras to cover those predetermined locations if an alarm is tripped (ie a door or window).
- Wireless mobile panic alarm system, with up to 3 wireless pendants.
- Warranty program

A walk-through of Rydhave will be conducted on September 19, 2008 at 1000 hours. All interested companies must attend. Please RSVP to Regional Security Officer Jeff Howard at howardjj@state.gov or RSO Investigator Jan Soerensen (soerensenjs@state.gov).

Bids are due no later then September 26th, 2008 at 1700 hours.

(h) Certification Regarding Responsibility Matters (Executive Order 12689). (Applies only if the contract value is expected to exceed the simplified acquisition threshold.) The offeror certifies, to the best of its knowledge and belief, that the offeror and/or any of its principals—

(1) o Are, o are not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, or declared ineligible for the award of contracts by any Federal agency;

(2) o Have, o have not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, been convicted of or had a civil judgment rendered against them for: commission of fraud or a criminal offense in connection with obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a Federal, state or local government contract or subcontract; violation of Federal or state antitrust statutes relating to the submission of offers; or commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, tax evasion, violating Federal criminal tax laws, or receiving stolen property;

(3) o Are, o are not presently indicted for, or otherwise criminally or civilly charged by a Government entity with, commission of any of these offenses enumerated in paragraph (h)(2) of this clause; and

(4) o Have, o have not, within a three-year period preceding this offer, been notified of any delinquent Federal taxes in an amount that exceeds $3,000 for which the liability remains unsatisfied.

(i) Taxes are considered delinquent if both of the following criteria apply:

(A) The tax liability is finally determined. The liability is finally determined if it has been assessed. A liability is not finally determined if there is a pending administrative or judicial challenge. In the case of a judicial challenge to the liability, the liability is not finally determined until all judicial appeal rights have been exhausted.

(B) The taxpayer is delinquent in making payment. A taxpayer is delinquent if the taxpayer has failed to pay the tax liability when full payment was due and required. A taxpayer is not delinquent in cases where enforced collection action is precluded.

(ii) Examples.

(A) The taxpayer has received a statutory notice of deficiency, under I.R.C. §6212, which entitles the taxpayer to seek Tax Court review of a proposed tax deficiency. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek Tax Court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer has exercised all judicial appeal rights.

(B) The IRS has filed a notice of Federal tax lien with respect to an assessed tax liability, and the taxpayer has been issued a notice under I.R.C. §6320 entitling the taxpayer to request a hearing with the IRS Office of Appeals contesting the lien filing, and to further appeal to the Tax Court if the IRS determines to sustain the lien filing. In the course of the hearing, the taxpayer is entitled to contest the underlying tax liability because the taxpayer has had no prior opportunity to contest the liability. This is not a delinquent tax because it is not a final tax liability. Should the taxpayer seek tax court review, this will not be a final tax liability until the taxpayer has exercised all judicial appeal rights.

(C) The taxpayer has entered into an installment agreement pursuant to I.R.C. §6159. The taxpayer is making timely payments and is in full compliance with the agreement terms. The taxpayer is not delinquent because the taxpayer is not currently required to make full payment.

(D) The taxpayer has filed for bankruptcy protection. The taxpayer is not delinquent because enforced collection action is stayed under 11 U.S.C. §362 (the Bankruptcy Code).
