Recommendations &

Domestic Staffing

Our wonderful maid and cook, Emme, will be available to begin work in August when we depart. She speaks English very well, has been cooking for Western families for many years, and is fantastic at cleaning, laundry, grocery shopping, and anything else we have needed. We highly recommend her. — Mark and Laurie. Call Emme at 0912032307.

Worku Demeke has worked for us for two years. He started with us in Bole as a weekend guard who also came inside and cleaned the house. Since then he has moved with us to Old Airport and become a part of our lives. He watches our 8 and 10 year old, guards our compound, cleans everyday during the week, does some laundry and shopping, pet care, gardening, and anything else to help us out. Prefers Gerji or Bole area. His English is fair, and improving. Email me cunning-hampj@state.gov for questions. Worku: 0913901636

Cook/Housekeeper Available: Walensa Birhan worked for us as a cook and cleaner for the last year. She was responsible for "all things food," as well as cleaning half of our house. She is especially skilled at parties & receptions, knowing how much food was needed for events, & having it prepared with perfect timing. Walensa has worked for American families for many years, and is skilled at popular items like pizza, enchiladas, mac & cheese, quiche, homemade bread and more. She has experience with specialty foods like Japanese & Indian. Walensa is extremely trustworthy. She kept receipts for shopping, and maintained a petty cash fund. Her English skills are very good. She is punctual, not missing a day of work. Walensa can be reached directly at 0921605395 or email Heather at huwbi-joux@hotmail.com.

Dawit Regassa, our substitute day guard, is looking for a full-time position: Reliable and hardworking, Dawit speaks excellent English. Available immediately. Contact him directly at 0913312144. Reference: Warren (wdl14@hotmail.com).

Massage in your home! Contact Fre at 0911-689-475. Recommended by Cate.
