

The Lion Cub

The Newsletter of the American Community in Ethiopia

Community: Thursday, January 17th, 2013

INSIDE

- Mardi Grass party 1
- Classifieds 2

Mardi Gras

Friday, February 15

Location- Marine House at the American Embassy

Time- 8:00pm-Midnight

Dress Code- It's a Masquerade!!!

Food Will Be Served

Music by DJ Doublewide

Free Bead Give Aways

2013

Join us on Facebook for more updates and future events

Facebook.com/groups/
FourCornersEnt

Join Our Facebook Page to Enter Contests and Win Prizes!!!

Classifieds

For Sale

2001 Toyota Rav4L: Great condition, 4WD, automatic transmission, 67,000 miles, silver exterior, brand new tires and brakes included. Imported duty free in 2011. Asking $10,000 USD. Available April 2013. Please contact MeehlingLA@state.gov.

EVDO stick: $100 or 1800 birr. Still activated with air time on it for the month of January.

Contact 0925 93 7334 or angineeki@hotmail.com.

Wanted

Wanted: Baby Crib for 1 years old and above. Please contact Hiwot Alemayehu at 0911423307. Alemayehuhs@state.gov

Wanted: sewing machine: Please call Joyce at 091 311 0058.

Domestic Staff

Tameru Molla, our substitute dayguard, just finished a week of work for us over the holidays to give our regular guard time off and is now looking for a full-time position. Tameru is reliable, speaks good English, and is very handy at household chores (gardening, painting, minor repairs, etc.). Tameru has completed the Embassy background check. Contact him directly at 0913333830 or through Warren at x6756.

NGO Bazaar @ EIC

January 26th, 8:30-12:00

The NGO Bazaar takes place in the Evangelical International Church which is in an area called Sar Bet, just down from the African Union as you head towards Adam's Pavilion, the shopping centre. The College is opposite Novis Supermarket and King's Hotel.

