COMPETENT AUTHORITY ASSISTANCE

If you are a U.S. citizen or resident and you think that the actions of the United States, a treaty country, or both, cause or will cause a tax situation not intended by the treaty between the two countries, you may request assistance from the U.S. competent authority to resolve your case (See the instructions in Revenue Procedure 2006-54). You should read any specific treaty articles, including the Mutual Agreement Procedure (MAP) article, that apply in your situation.

Please visit the IRS website at:

<http://www.irs.gov/businesses/small/international/article/0,,I>

FOREIGN BANK AND FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS (FBAR)

American citizens and residents with a financial interest in, or signatory or other authority over any foreign financial accounts, including bank, securities, and other types of accounts, whose value exceeded $10,000 at any point during the year must (1) check the “yes” box on line 7a of Schedule B of Form 1040 for such year and also (2) file Form TD F 90-22.1 with the Department of the Treasury before June 30th of the following year (no extensions are allowed for this form).

For more information please follow this link:

<http://www.irs.gov/businesses/article/0,,id=180946,00.html>

Reporting of Foreign Bank Accounts (FBAR) can now be done Electronically at: http://bsaefiling.fincen.treas.gov/Enroll\_Individual.html

The IRS has launched the Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts (FBAR Form TDF 90-22.1) Helpline to connect practitioners and filers, both domestic and abroad, with a team of specially trained technicians, examiners, and specialists to answer technical questions:

<http://www.irs.gov/businesses/small/article/0,,id=247147,00.html>

FOREIGN ACCOUNT TAX COMPLIANCE ACT (FACTA)

Some taxpayers will be required to file the new Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Financial Assets, with their 2011 income tax returns, when the total value of their specified foreign financial assets exceeds certain amounts. Specified foreign financial assets include foreign financial accounts and foreign financial investment assets not held in a domestic or foreign account. The new Form 8938 filing requirement does not replace or otherwise affect a taxpayer’s obligation to file an FBAR (see previous topic). For more information, please refer to the FATCA website at:

<http://www.irs.gov/businesses/corporations/article/0,,id=236667,00.html>

INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY AGREEMENTS

The main purpose of International Social Security agreements, often called “Totalization Agreements,” is to eliminate dual Social Security taxation—the situation that occurs when a worker from one country works in another country and is required to pay Social Security taxes to both countries on the same earnings. You may access the various agreements that the United States has with other countries at www.ssa.gov/international/agreements\_overview.html.

FILING REQUIREMENTS

If you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien, the rules for filing income, estate, and gift tax returns and paying estimated tax are generally the same whether you are in the United States or abroad.

Your income, filing status, and age determine whether you must file an income tax return. Generally, you must file a return for 2011 if your gross income from worldwide sources is at least:

FILING STATUS *	AMOUNT
Single under 65 _____	$ 9,500
65 or older _____	$ 10,950
Head of Household _____	$ 12,200
65 or older _____	$ 13,650
Qualifying Widow(er) _____	$ 15,300
65 or older _____	$ 16,450
Married filing jointly _____	$ 19,000
1 spouse 65 or older _____	$ 20,150
Both spouses 65 or older _____	$ 21,300
Married filing separately _____ (any age)	$ 3,700

* If you are the dependent of another taxpayer or are self-employed, see the instructions for Form 1040 for more information on whether you must file a return.

U.S. citizens and residents (as determined under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code) living outside the United States are subject to the same filing requirements that apply to U.S. citizens living in the United States. However, if a U.S. resident (other than a U.S. citizen) determines that he or she is a resident of another country under the provisions of an income tax treaty, then such individual may be subject to the filing requirements of a nonresident alien.

Free File & E-File

You can prepare and e-file your federal tax return for free. Participating software companies make their products available through the IRS. Please refer to the following website for more information:
<http://www.irs.gov/efile/index.html?portlet=106>

INDIVIDUAL TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS (ITINs)

The IRS issues Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ITINs) to foreign nationals and resident aliens who are required to have a U.S. taxpayer identification number for federal tax purposes but do not have and do not qualify for a Social Security Number. A person may request an ITIN by filing a Form W-7 with a certified copy of his passport and other required supplementary documentation (see instructions for Form W-7).

U.S. income tax returns for 2011 are due on April 17, 2012. If you reside overseas, or are in the military on duty outside the U.S., you are allowed an automatic 2-month extension to file your return until June 15, 2012. However, any tax due must be paid by the original return due date (April 17) to avoid interest charges.

If you are unable to file your return by the due date, you can request an additional extension to October 17 by filing Form 4868 before the return due date (to determine if further extensions are available go to www.irs.gov). However, any payments made after June 15 would be subject to both interest charges and failure to pay penalties.

TIMELY RECEIPT OF FOREIGN-FILED FORMS & PAYMENTS

Federal tax returns and other documents mailed to the IRS are treated as filed on the date of the domestic or foreign postmark. However, payments with foreign postmarks are not considered received until the date of actual receipt rather than the postmark date. This includes payments submitted with tax returns. Accordingly, you should take this into consideration when mailing a payment from outside the U.S. in order to avoid late payment penalties and interest charges.

OBTAINING TAX FORMS AND PUBLICATIONS

You may download or order tax forms and publications by the following means:

- ▶ Internet: www.irs.gov/formspubs
- ▶ Phone: +1 (800) 829-3676

EXCHANGE RATES

You must report all income in U.S. Dollar equivalents. The following are some average exchange rates for 2011, 2010, and 2009*:

Israel	New Shekel	3.724	3.887	4.089

Taxpayers generally use the yearly average exchange rate to report foreign-earned income that was regularly received throughout the year. If you had a few foreign transactions on particular days, however, you may prefer to use the exchange rates for such days.
