Visa Application Fee (MRV Fee)

Each person applying in Germany for a visa to travel to the United States is required to complete separately an online payment confirmation form in order to obtain a secure receipt (Visa Deposit Slip) for the visa processing fee.

(<http://germany.usembassy.gov/visa/niv/step5/>)

The online payment service is provided by Roskos & Meier OHG, a subsidiary of the Allianz Group.

<https://www.visasystem-roskosmeier.de/index.php?lang=en>

Step 1: Applicants complete and submit the payment confirmation form as directed, specifying how they would like to receive the secure receipt (by e-mail, mail or personal collection)

Step 2: Online applicants then receive an e-mail message containing payment instructions and a personal account number to use for the bank transfer. The visa application fee depends on the visa category for which you apply.

Step 3: Once Roskos & Meier has confirmed that payment has been made into the appropriate personal account, applicants will be sent a digitally-signed receipt, which they must present at their visa interview as proof of payment.

OR Submit a stamped, signed receipt from your bank for a "Bareinzahlung".

The receipt must show the personal account number. You must present a print-out of the e-mail from Roskos & Meier giving the account number.
