Project Title and Location: Dredging Georgia Coast Guard Harbor at Poti, Georgia

The U.S. Government is soliciting interest for a firm, fixed-priced construction contract. Work will consist of dredging the harbor area belonging to the Georgian Coast Guard at the port of Poti, Georgia. The Contract shall include the performance of a pre-dredge and post-dredge bathymetric/ hydrographic surveys by an Independent Third Party Subcontractor hired by the Contractor to verify the depth of the Port.

CLEARANCE

The Contractor's and subcontractors' vessels, plant, and/or equipment movement in the port area shall be coordinated with the port authorities and the Georgian Coast Guard to avoid conflicts with the ports operations.

DEBRIS IN PORT AREA

As is common in anchorages, the Contractor may encounter debris in the port area such as scrap metal, rubbish, etc. The Contractor may encounter Abandoned Unexploded Ordinance (AXO), Explosive Remnants of War (ERW), and/or Unexploded Ordinance (UXO) during dredging operations due to the Georgian/ Russian conflict in Aug. of 2008 as outlined in the Norwegian People's Aid Survey Technical Report dated 3 to 24 January 2010.

There is a low risk of uncovering unexploded ordnance during dredging operations and in the event that unexploded ordnance is uncovered, immediately it will be flagged with Georgian government and EXBS representatives for removal by qualified Georgian government experts. The contractor shall dredge as necessary to achieve the required depths, as specified in solicitation.

Solicitation for Request for Proposals (RFP) will be issued on or about 30 January 2012 and proposal receipt is required by 2 March 2012.

Potential offerors are encouraged to submit their company name, mailing address and telephone, fax number and e-mail address of an English speaking contact no later than 6 February 2012 to Contract Specialist: Abraham Curry at, e-mail: Abraham.Curry@usace.army.mil, telephone number: +49(0)611 816 2788.

At this time a Pre-proposal Conference and site visit has been scheduled on 7 February 2012 at 1400 hours at the Poti New Port, Coast Guard Base, Poti, Georgia.

All interested parties are kindly invited!
