DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION WEEK: EXPERIENCE MORE

This year for the first time, IBS will be co-located with the Kitchen & Bath Industry Show (KBIS) for Design & Construction Week™ in Las Vegas: two shows under one roof!

What does this mean for you? More building industry manufacturers and suppliers, more colleagues to meet and more chances to see and touch the newest materials, techniques and trends in building. You are sure to increase your return on investment.

Registration Discounts and the International Buyer Program

Need proof that IBS holds value for you? It's one of the very few U.S. trade shows to be chosen by the U.S. Department of Commerce as part of the International Buyer Program (IBP). That means IBS is promoted by people at U.S. embassies, consulates and commercial centers worldwide, who also help organize delegations from around the world and encourage international buyers, agents and distributors to attend. International visitors who attend through the IBP delegations receive registration fee discounts and other benefits that add value to their trip. For more information, contact the U.S. embassy or consulate nearest you or visit BuildersShow.com/delegations.

The Newest Products, Materials and Techniques

Have a building problem you need to solve? Need to learn more about the most advanced environmentally-friendly materials? Want to be ahead of the crowd when it comes to building products? You're not alone: New products are the top reason people come to the show year after year. 90% of IBS attendees say they discovered new products at the show. You'll build your inventory and your knowledge of:

- » Green building products
- » Doors and windows
- » Flooring
- » Bathroom and kitchen products
- » Roofing
- » Home technology

And more! See all the product categories and search exhibitors at BuildersShow.com/exhibitorsearch

THE ONE AND ONLY LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

There are few more exciting cities than Las Vegas, and IBS is the perfect excuse to put this town on your "visited" list. From the famous fountains at the Bellagio to the amazing canals of the Venetian, to the shows of Cirque du Soleil, to the dozens of restaurants owned and overseen by nearly every famous chef you can think of, Las Vegas is a world-class destination with something for everyone. This is the city to have some fun while you build your business, your knowledge and your career at The NAHB International Builders' Show.
