The U.S. Embassy in Athens is seeking an individual for the position of Network LAN Technician in the Information System Center.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

The Network LAN Technician reports directly to the Team Leader and is fully responsible for, but not exclusively, the core network environment of the Embassy. The Network LAN Technician must continually monitor and analyze the network to determine if/where upgrades and repairs are required to ensure optimum performance. Fully responsible for monitoring computer room environmental control systems; for installing and/or working with vendors to install new network cabling, LAN switching equipment and internetwork routing equipment; for the ISMC Computer Lab spare parts inventory as needed and usability of the lab and tools. Shares responsibility for supporting Customer Service requests that require troubleshooting/repair of network hardware, software and related peripherals. Fully responsible for maintaining the computer room Network Print Server and its hardware and software and for all ISMC equipment storage areas. Acts as a backup for the ISMC Help Desk Technician and performs other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

All applicants are instructed to address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each criterion.

- Education: Completion of a four year college/university degree in Computer Science with an emphasis on Information Technology.
- Experience:
 - FSN-8, FP-6 (full performance): Three years progressively responsible experience in computer operations.
 - FSN-7, FP-7 (trainee level): Two years progressively responsible experience in computer operations.
- Language:
 - a) English language - level III (good working knowledge) speak/read/write.
 - b) Greek language - level III (good working knowledge) speak/read/write.
- Knowledge of:
 - Excellent knowledge of network analysis tools and techniques: campus level network design that includes routers, client access switches, fiber optic theory, testing and basic fiber optic cable termination proficiency.
 - Knowledge of CAT X twisted pair technologies, testing, color code and EIA-568A/B termination standards and cable termination proficiency.
 - An excellent understanding of network project planning/management and customer service and interpersonal communications.
- Skills and Abilities: Excellent skills in resolving advanced network and hardware and/or software problems. Ability to analyze the network environment and use various network analysis meters/equipment; to make recommendations for problem solving and determine upgrades for trouble areas; to perform hardware setup and operational adjustments. Strong customer service, communications and training/presentation skills required.

Note: Language proficiency may be tested.

SELECTION PROCESS

When equally qualified, U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members and U.S. Veterans will be given preference. Therefore, it is essential that all candidates address the required qualifications and provide documentation required in the application.

DEFINITIONS

1. Eligible Family Member (EFM): An individual related to a U.S. government employee in one of the following ways:

- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610);
- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
- Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
- Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.

2. U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizen; and,
- EFM (see above) at least 18 years old; and,
- Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and either:

1. Resides at the sponsoring employee's or uniformed service member's post of assignment abroad or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; or
2. Resides at an Involuntary Separate Maintenance Allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2.

3. Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM): EFM (see above) eligible for a Family Member Appointment for purposes of Mission employment:

- Is a U.S. citizen; and
- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) or a child of the sponsoring employee who is unmarried and at least 18 years old; and
- Is listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), and who is under chief of mission authority; and
- Is residing at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, office of the American Institute in Taiwan.
- Does not receive a Foreign Service or Civil Service annuity

4. Member of Household (MOH): An individual who accompanies a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member permanently assigned or stationed at a U.S. Foreign Service post or establishment abroad, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan. An MOH is:

- Not an EFM; and,
- Not on the travel orders of the sponsoring employee; and,
- Has been officially declared by the sponsoring USG employee to the COM as part of his/her household.

A MOH is under Chief of Mission (COM) authority and may include a parent, unmarried partner, and other relative or adult child who falls outside the Department's current legal and statutory definition of family member. A MOH does not have to be a U.S. Citizen.

5. Not Ordinarily Resident (NOR) – An individual who:

- Is not a citizen of the host country; and,
- Does not ordinarily reside (OR, see below) in the host country; and,
- Is not subject to host country employment and tax laws; and,

- Has a U.S. Social Security Number (SSN).

NOR employees are compensated under a GS or FS salary schedule, not under the LCP.

6. Ordinarily Resident (OR) – A Foreign National or U.S. citizen who:

- Is locally resident; and,
- Has legal, permanent resident status within the host country; and,
- Is subject to host country employment and tax laws.

EFMs without U.S. Social Security Numbers are also OR. All OR employees, including U.S. citizens, are compensated in accordance with the Local Compensation Plan (LCP).

CLOSING DATE FOR THIS POSITION: December 16, 2014

The U.S. Mission in Greece provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation. Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.
