Please bring the original ID and one photocopy of each. Postal ID is not acceptable.

Possible evidence includes current and expired U.S. passports, Certificate of Naturalization or Certificate of Citizenship, U.S. birth certificate, or Consular Report of Birth Abroad. Please bring the original and one photocopy of all pages.

PHYSICAL PRESENCE/RESIDENCE IN THE UNITED STATES

- U.S. citizen parent's evidence of physical presence/residence in the United States. You must bring proof of your U.S. citizen parent's physical presence/residence in the United States before your birth. Please consult our website for the requirements that pertain to your particular situation (<http://guadalajara.usconsulate.gov/derivative-citizenship-over-the-age-of-18.html>). Regularly available documents that may establish physical presence/residence in the U.S. include transcripts from high school and/or college, income tax returns and W2s, old passports, a military statement of service or DD-214 Separation Statement (military members only). You can submit other documents as evidence. Please bring the original documents and a photocopy of each.

LEGITIMATION/LEGAL RELATIONSHIP

- Parents' marriage certificate, if applicable. Please bring the original marriage certificate and one photocopy.
- Evidence of legitimation for out-of-wedlock births. This must be submitted if your parents were not married at the time of your birth. See Legitimation Requirements on the "Derivative U.S. Citizenship for Adults" on our web page.
- Divorce and annulment decrees, if applicable. You must show proof of termination of all prior marriages of your parents. - U.S. citizen parent's death certificate, if applicable. Please bring the original and one photocopy of the death certificate of your deceased U.S. citizen parent.

BLOOD RELATIONSHIP

- Prenatal records and/or other evidence of your mother's pregnancy. Please bring original documents and photocopies. These are helpful in establishing the existence of the pregnancy as well as the biological relationship of the applicant to the mother, regardless of citizenship. With the ultrasound reports, the Embassy is able to determine the probable conception period.
- Evidence of your parents' physical presence in the same location at the time of conception (preferably original passports). You may bring a notarized copy of the U.S. passport and its pages in lieu of the original. (Note: we only accept documents notarized by a U.S. commissioned notary).
- Evidence of the parents' relationship prior to the conception of the applicant. The burden of proving a claim to U.S. citizenship, including a blood relationship, is on the person making such claim. Photos prior to the time of conception, letters, and other correspondence may help establish the relationship prior to the conception of the applicant. Bring original documents and a photocopy of each. Genetic testing is a useful tool for verifying a stated biological relationship when no other form of credible evidence is available. For more information, read the DNA testing procedures on the Embassy's website:
<http://guadalajara.usconsulate.gov/service/passports-and-citizen-services/consular-reports-of-birth-abroad.html>

NOTE: Do not initiate DNA testing unless it was recommended by the Embassy for your pending CRBA application. A DNA test done independently and not according to Department of State procedures will not be accepted.

REMINDER:

We stand ready to assist you; however, the biggest obstacle to a quick completion of the CRBA application process is obtaining all of the necessary documents. If you do not bring the required documentation, we will suspend processing of the application and you may be required to schedule another appointment.

You may be asked to provide additional documentation at the time of your interview. By regulation you will have 90 days to submit the requested documentation or the case will be closed for insufficient evidence to establish U.S. citizenship of the applicant. Be reminded all fees are non-refundable.

I hereby certify that I have read the above instructions and that I have all the listed documents applicable to my case in my possession and am prepared to present them at the time of my appointment.
