POST LANGUAGE PROGRAM

BACKGROUND.

It is the policy of the U.S. Consulate Guayaquil to provide language training to support the needs of the Mission and to promote employees' efficiency, career development and professionalism. This scope of work is to contract for the services of language instructors.

PURPOSE.

The selected provider will be responsible for teaching Spanish to Consulate employees and to family members of U.S. direct-hire personnel. All agencies at post may use this service for their employees subject to agency funding and approval by the Agency Head.

PROVIDER'S OBLIGATIONS.

- The selected provider will perform all teaching activities in accordance with current Mission policies governing language instruction.
- The provider will provide a written proposal indicating objectives, prices, and academic program for each level.
- The provider will teach groups or individuals of people classified under three levels: Basic, Intermediate and Advanced.
- Each level will last for 60 hours, until students are no longer attending or until class sizes are considered too small to justify funding, whichever occurs first in each instance.
- The classes will be held for 1 ½ hours per day on weekdays Monday to Friday from 08:00am to 05:00pm, in accordance with the Mission internal policy, except on official Ecuadorian or U.S. federal holidays. During summer hours the schedule will be Monday to Thursday from 8:00am to 4:30pm and Fridays until 1:00pm. The class schedule and the number of sessions will be determined according to the number of students and number of classes.
- The provider will present a monthly roster with actual hours signed both by the instructor and the student, according to the policy "hour signed, hour paid" which must be certified by both parties: HR and the provider representative.
- The Post Language Officer will set up group classes of at least two employees at the same language level and time availability and will be designated by HR or Supervisor.

- The provider will keep a roster of class attendance, a copy of which will be turned over to the Consulate's Office of Human Resources at the end of each month. Students on official travel, illness or on leave will be excused from attending classes with previous written notification to HR.
- The provider will be subject to reviews and assessment by the Post Language Officer/ HRO. Reviews will specifically include the content of the course, the applicability of the lessons to student need, and the effectiveness of teaching methods. If the teaching is not considered satisfactory, the U.S. Consulate may consider terminating the services without prior notice.
- The provider will perform a placement test to determine the students' level.
- The provider will periodically give quizzes to determine the students' progress and will give a test at the end of each course to determine if the students are prepared for the next level. The results of the tests will be forwarded to the Post Language Officer and the Office of Human Resources.
- The provider will be responsible for transportation, parking fees or other expenses, which the teacher(s) may incur in the performance of this contract.
- The designated teacher to the Beginner Level should have minimum English language skill to be able to communicate and aid the comprehension of the students.

Only legally established institutions or language schools will be considered as potential providers. Submit a copy of the Ministry of Education certificate.

CONSULATE'S OBLIGATIONS.

- a. The Consulate will allow the teacher(s) Consulate entry access and will provide use of physical space and facilities necessary to perform the training.
- b. The Consulate will pay for all electricity, water, gas, trash disposal, and other services for classes taught within Consulate premises where the classes are to be taught.
- c. The Consulate will pay the provider on a monthly basis by means of a purchase order.
- d. The provider will provide the Consulate with a legal invoice based on the daily roster. The Consulate will pay for the hours of class participants who could not attend and were not notified in advance as established and certified in the class roster.
- e. Payment will be in accordance with Mission Policy at an hourly rate to be determined after receiving the proposals of the providers interested in providing the Consulate with this service.

OTHER.

Post Language training is subject to funding availability and order of priority is governed by 13 FAM 231.

The Post Language program for Department of State (except the MSGs) employees (ADH and FSN) and family members of ADH. The rules for language training are stated in a Mission Policy (see attached).

Post Language program for other Agencies including MSG offices that would like consideration for the program will have to provide funding, before the service can be offered.

All unexcused absences will be charged to the employee. All anticipated absences will not be counted against unexcused absences, provided that the Post language contractor is notified at least 24 hours in advance. The Financial Management Office will submit bills of collections when appropriate.

METHODOLOGY.

Classes should follow the communicative language teaching approach. Instruction should be organized not in terms of grammatical structure, but in terms of functions (i.e. the specific purpose and context of the utterance). For example, the function “shopping” requires a solid grasp of numbers, asking about prices or features of a product and bargaining. Similarly, the function “hosting a dinner or party” requires introductions and greetings and discussing interests and hobbies, proposing a toast, making a short speech, etc.

Such an approach emphasizes interaction and communication as the ultimate goal of study. Such communicative competence is taught by:

1. Teaching and practicing to communicate through interaction in the target language;
2. Introducing authentic texts into the learning situation from the very beginning (i.e., supermarket fliers, business cards, etc. for the very beginners; editorials for advanced learners);
3. Enhancing/Including the student’s own personal experiences as important contributing elements to classroom learning (i.e. teaching and talking about embassy-typical situations);
4. Linking classroom language learning with language activities outside the classroom, i.e. going to the deli counter in the supermarket and ordering cuts of meat or fish after learning about shopping in the classroom; going to an open market and bargaining; visiting a historical site or museum after reading an article about Ecuadorian history with intermediate or advanced students.

In the classroom, pairs or groups of students negotiate and cooperate in fluency-based activities that are centered on a given topic to develop confidence in that thematic area. Fluency-based activities include interviews, role-plays, surveys, and – especially at the advanced level -- speaking at length. It is recommended that in-class teaching is reinforced with the thematically organized expressions and grammar topics of the FSI language resource Mango for Spanish at the beginner and intermediate levels. At the advanced level, grammar topics should be covered only on a diagnostic basis in class, i.e. when students demonstrate repeated or basic problems with a particular grammar topic.

EVALUATION FACTORS.

1. Providing classes on the assigned days and at the assigned times.
2. Teaching a variety of language skills in each class; i.e. speaking, listening (i.e. to the teacher's experience about his/her weekend or an interesting article/event); reading and, if so desired by the student, writing.
3. Using a variety of activities in each class; i.e. authentic reading materials (i.e. for beginners: obituaries, shop fliers, tourist offerings; for intermediate: simple newspaper articles about events; for advanced: editorials, readings about complex topics); Providing plenty of speaking opportunity for students (such as role-plays, presentations, interviews, telephone calls); grammar and vocabulary exercises.

(b) All delivery orders or task orders are subject to the terms and conditions of this contract. In the event of conflict between a delivery order or task order and this contract, the contract shall control.

(c) If mailed, a delivery order or task order is considered "issued" when the Government deposits the order in the mail. Orders may be issued orally, by facsimile, or by electronic commerce methods only if authorized in the Schedule.

52.216-19 ORDER LIMITATIONS. (OCT 1995)

(a) Minimum order. When the Government requires supplies or services covered by this contract in an amount of less than five (5) hours, the Government is not obligated to purchase, nor is the Contractor obligated to furnish, those supplies or services under the contract.

(b) Maximum order. The Contractor is not obligated to honor--

(1) Any order for a single item in excess of than one hundred (100) hours;

(2) Any order for a combination of items in excess of than one hundred (100) hours; or
