

NEW REGULATION FOR ECUADORIAN PASSPORTS VALIDITY WHEN ENTERING THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Ecuadorian citizens traveling to the United States are advised that their passport must be valid for six months beyond the date that they will EXIT the United States.

Ecuadorian citizens whose U.S. visa is in a passport that has expired or will expire within six months of the end of their U.S. visit but who have a new passport do not need to apply for a new visa. Travelers should present both the new passport and the old passport with the valid visa to the United States Customs and Border Patrol officer upon arrival in the U.S.
