

Conakry, March 1, 2013

For immediate release

Press Release

U.S. Government Calls for Nonviolence and Support of Peaceful Democratic Process in Guinea

Press Statement

Patrick Ventrell

Acting Deputy Spokesperson, Office of the Spokesperson

Washington, DC

February 28, 2013

Contact: Ousmane Barry - U.S. Embassy, Conakry – Press Assistant

Email: BarryO@state.gov

Phone: 224 65 10 4369

The United States deplores the violence that disrupted political protests in Conakry, Guinea and we reiterate our call for all political parties, government officials, security forces, and civil society to participate and support the democratic process and commit to nonviolence throughout the electoral cycle. The United States continues to urge the Republic of Guinea to work with all parties to ensure peaceful and transparent legislative elections take place.

#

Contact: Ousmane Barry - U.S. Embassy, Conakry – Press Assistant

Email: BarryO@state.gov

Phone: 224 65 10 4369

