The U.S. Embassy in Port-au-Prince is seeking an individual for the position of HIV/ Opportunistic Infections Specialist in the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention Office (CDC).

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION: The HIV/Opportunistic Infections (OI) Specialist, under the supervision of the HIV Clinical Chief, serves as a senior clinical program manager and key public health technical advisor responsible for developing, implementing, coordinating, and supervising activities of various HIV and OI diagnostic and treatment programs. The incumbent plays an active technical advisory role to the Ministry of Health in Haiti (MSPP) and implementing partners, day-to-day program and administrative management, and coordination with other USG agencies to ensure that project implementation addresses program strategic objectives and U.S. and host government national and international public health standards and best practices. Both the advisory and managerial roles require public health technical leadership, results-oriented analysis, advocacy, and constant and clear communication with the MSPP, other host government ministries, implementing partners, and other donors.

A copy of the complete position description listing all duties and responsibilities is available in the Human Resources Office. Contact pappersonnel@state.gov or call 509-2229-3205.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item.

1. Master degree with specialty in Infectious Diseases, Tropical Medicine, or Internal Medicine or related specialty is required.
2. At least five years of progressively responsible experience in HIV/AIDS clinical care including at least three years designing, managing or delivering HIV/AIDS treatment, care and prevention services, including OI Service delivery in one or more international agency systems is required.
3. Level IV (Fluent) English, French and Creole (speaking, reading and writing) ability required.
4. Must have highly specialized knowledge of HIV/AIDS care and treatment strategies as they pertain to OI service delivery
5. Ability to establish effective diplomatic working relationships with individuals and official representatives of public health organizations, particularly those representing CDC and other USG agency staff, MSPP and other CDC Haiti implementing partners and stakeholders.

Applicants who meet education and work experience requirements may be called in for evaluation of language, typing and computer skills

SELECTION PROCESS

When fully qualified, US Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and US Veterans are given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate specifically address the required qualifications above in the application. Eligible Family Members and Members of household must have at least one year remaining to their tour of duty to be eligible for this JOB. Consideration of EFM's will be based on funding availability.

DEFINITIONS

This diagram demonstrates how an Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM) is also a US-citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM) as well as an Eligible Family Member (EFM).

1. Eligible Family Member (EFM): An individual related to a US Government employee in one of the following ways:
 - Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610);
 - Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchildren and adopted children and those under legal guardianship of the employee or the spouse when such children are expected to be under such legal guardianship until they reach 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian;
 - Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of the employee or of the spouse, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support;
 - Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, or of the spouse, when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support.

2. US Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, an EFM who meets the following criteria:
 - US Citizen; and,
 - EFM (see above) at least 18 years old; and,
 - Listed on the travel orders of a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member assigned to or stationed abroad with a USG agency that is under COM authority, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and either:
 1. Resides at the sponsoring employee's or uniformed service member's post of assignment abroad or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; or
 2. Resides at an Involuntary Separate Maintenance Allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2.

3. Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM): EFM (see above) eligible for a Family Member Appointment for purposes of Mission employment:
 - Is a U.S. citizen; and
 - Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) or a child of the sponsoring employee who is unmarried and at least 18 years old; and
 - Is listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), and who is under chief of mission authority; and
 - Is residing at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, office of the American Institute in Taiwan.
 - Does not receive a Foreign Service or Civil Service annuity

4. Member of Household (MOH): An individual who accompanies a direct-hire Foreign, Civil, or uniformed service member permanently assigned or stationed at a U.S. Foreign Service post or establishment abroad, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan. An MOH is:

- Not an EFM; and,
- Not on the travel orders of the sponsoring employee; and,
- Has been officially declared by the sponsoring USG employee to the COM as part of his/her household.

A MOH is under COM authority and may include a parent, unmarried partner, other relative or adult child who falls outside the Department's current legal and statutory definition of family member. A MOH does not have to be a US Citizen.

5. Not Ordinarily Resident (NOR) – An individual who:

- Is not a citizen of Haiti; and,
- Does not ordinarily reside (OR, see below) in the host country; and,
- Is not subject to host country employment and tax laws; and,
- Has a US Social Security Number (SSN).
- Is on the travel orders of a Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member permanently assign to post and under Chief authority.

NOR employees are compensated under a GS or FS salary schedule, not under the LCP.

6. Ordinarily Resident (OR) – A Foreign National or US citizen who:

- Is locally resident; and,
- Has legal, permanent resident status within the host country; and,
- Is subject to host country employment and tax laws.

EFMs without US Social Security Numbers are also OR. All OR employees, including US citizens, are compensated in accordance with the Local Compensation Plan (LCP).

CLOSING DATE FOR THIS POSITION: February 22, 2013

The US Mission in Port-au-Prince provides equal opportunity and fair and equitable treatment in employment to all people without regard to race, color religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation, marital status, or sexual orientation. The Department of State also strives to achieve equal employment opportunity in all personnel operations through continuing diversity enhancement programs.

The EEO complaint procedure is not available to individuals who believe they have been denied equal opportunity based upon marital status or political affiliation. Individuals with such complaints should avail themselves of the appropriate grievance procedures, remedies for prohibited personnel practices, and/or courts for relief.
