Warden Message

September 22, 2010

In connection with the upcoming bicentennial celebrations, Mexican President Felipe Calderón has declared that Wednesday, September 15 and Friday, September 17 holidays for Mexican federal government employees. These holidays will be observed this year in addition to the traditional Mexican Independence Day holiday on Thursday, September 16.

In view of this decision, and in anticipation of extensive transportation disruptions and business closures throughout Mexico during the bicentennial celebrations, the U.S. Embassy and all U.S. consulates and consular agencies in Mexico will be closed Wednesday September 15 through Friday, September 17. The Embassy and all constituent posts will resume normal operations on Monday, September 20.

For the latest security information, U.S. citizens traveling abroad should regularly monitor the Department's internet web site at <http://travel.state.gov> where the current Worldwide Caution, Travel Warnings, and Travel Alerts can be found.
