

Fuel purchase for Agencies
RFQ SHO800-12-Q-0014

Questions and Answers

Note: All questions have been transcribed.

1. Q. What are the payment terms requested??
A. A 30 days credit basis. The contractor should submit the detailed listing of the invoices at the end of every month and payment will be process within 30 days after receipt of invoices.
2. Q. What does mean “The successful offeror must be able to work with Chevron, since Chevron is the distributor for the US Embassy”??
A. Chevron was awarded the contract to distribute bulk fuel to Embassy premises.
3. Q. Does it refer to placing the fuel at a Chevron gas station???
A. Yes.
4. Q. The successful contractor shall buy the fuel from Chevron??? Or else???.... please clarify.
A. Yes, the contractor shall buy the fuel from Chevron.
5. Q. What is the difference between the Base Period and the First Option Year??
A. Base period is the first year of the contract and the First Option Year is the second year of the contract.
6. Q. The government provides de official announcement for a price change nation wide just 3 days before it becomes effective. On block 20 Number 1 letter b states that any request for adjustment in price shall be provided with a written notification at least one week before the new price is in effective. Can this clause be revised according to government procedures??
A. Yes. See amendment 001