

Second Annual and First International Conference

Organized by

ELTAI-Delhi Chapter

elt@i -d

ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION OF INDIA
(an associate of IATEFL, UK)

and

RELO, American Center, New Delhi

Theme:

Reflective Teaching Practices in ESL Classrooms

7-9 October 2011 (Friday-Sunday)

Time: 9 am – 5 pm

American Center
24 K.G.Marg
New Delhi.

Call for Papers

Proposals for paper presentation/ workshops are invited on the theme of the conference as well as the sub themes. Presentation should be based on practice/ research study carried out by the presenter

Sub themes:

- Impact of Journal Writing
- Self Evaluation
- Mentor- mentee interactions
- Effectiveness of in-service and pre-service teacher development practices
- Technology enabled solutions that aid reflective practices
- How to generate critical thinking

Abstracts and completed papers must be typed as Microsoft Word document in Times New Roman, font 12, single spacing.

The abstract should not be of more than 200 words and must be sent along with a brief resume in about 50 words of the paper presenter to eltaindia@gmail.com. Participants will be informed about the selection of their paper/ workshop proposal by 15 September 2011.

Geeta Raghavan Award for innovations in classroom teaching/ effective reflective practices will be awarded to the best paper presentation/ workshop. The Award instituted last year carries an amount of Rs. 5000/- and a citation.

Registration Information

Deadline to submit abstracts: 10 September 2011

Registration fee

Individual: Rs 600 (for ELT@I members)
Rs 750 (for non members)

Institutional: Rs 1000

One Day registration fee: Rs 250
(Fee includes lunch, tea and all conference papers)
On the spot registration available with an extra fee of Rs.100 only.