

AMBASSADOR ROEMER'S ACTIVITIES

August 2010

(Link to Current, May-July, April, March, February, January 2010; December, November, October, July to September 2009 Activities)

Varanasi welcomes Ambassador Roemer

August 30, 2010 Ambassador Roemer made his first visit to India's spiritual capital, Varanasi. While there, he delivered a speech at the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce, visited a hospital and met with patients, attended an interfaith prayer meeting and enjoyed the evening aarti ritual on the banks of the Ganges river.

Ambassador Roemer meets Maharaja of Jodhpur

August 27, 2010 Ambassador Timothy Roemer welcomed Gaj Singh, Maharaja of Marwar-Jodhpur, to the U.S. Embassy. In their meeting they discussed water management issues in Rajasthan, one of the most water-scarce states in India.

Ambassador Roemer commemorates birth of Mother Teresa

August 26, 2010 On the 100th anniversary of the birth of Mother Teresa, Ambassador Timothy J. Roemer said, "I join with Indians, Americans and many millions around the world who today honor the memory of one of the most extraordinary women of the 20th century."

U.S.-India collaboration promotes women in science

August 26, 2010 Ambassador Roemer gave remarks at the inaugural event of the "Women in Science" workshop. The event, organized to examine challenges faced by women pursuing careers in science, brought in participants from the U.S. and the Indian governments, industry and academia.

U.S. and India support cultural preservation

August 20, 2010 Technology and education help us honor our heritage. Ambassador Roemer launched a website August 20 for a US-sponsored project documenting Indo-Islamic monuments in northwest India. The Ambassador's Fund for Cultural Preservation has donated over Rs 18.5 million to preserve ten cultural heritage sites in India.

More on U.S.-India Education and Development ties

Ambassador Roemer meets with business leaders

August 20, 2010 Ambassador Roemer meets with business leaders and discusses the fundamental role private industry plays in the bilateral relationship.

Welcome by Ambassador Roemer

August 19, 2010 Ambassador Roemer welcomes and meets the Czech Republic Ambassador to India Mr. Miloslav Stasek.

Former U.S. Ambassador to India in New Delhi

August 19, 2010 Ambassador Roemer met with former U.S. Ambassador to India Frank Wisner at Roosevelt House. The two envoys discussed the past, present, and future of the U.S.-India relationship.

Ambassador Roemer meets with High Commissioner Malik

August 18, 2010 Ambassador Roemer met Pakistani High Commissioner Shahid Malik at the U.S. Embassy. The meeting was to discuss U.S. relief efforts in northern Pakistan and express concern for flood victims.

We're in this together, Hindustan Times

August 17, 2010 "Peace and security can't be delivered by a superpower or one country alone."

Coming soon: 'maximum INDIA' in Washington

August 17, 2010 Ambassador Roemer hosted classical Indian performers at Roosevelt House. The event was in honor of Alicia Adams, vice president for international programming and dance at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. In March, the center will put on 'maximum INDIA,' a celebration of Indian art and culture.

Highlighting the growing U.S.-India relationship

August 17, 2010 During a town hall meeting for American citizens, Ambassador Roemer discussed the growing partnership between India and the U.S. in recent years - ranging from state visits to the U.S.-India Strategic Dialogue. Participants asked questions about absentee voting and the Embassy's American citizen services.

Ambassador Roemer welcomes Brig. Gen. Joseph A. Lanni

August 17, 2010 Ambassador Roemer welcomes Brigadier General Joseph A. Lanni of the U.S. Air Force to New Delhi. General Lanni visited India to meet with senior Indian military officials and discuss the U.S. foreign military sales process.

Ambassador Roemer welcomes Major General Stephen Tom to Delhi

August 16, 2010 Major General Tom is the new commander of the Joint POW/MIA Accounting Command (JPAC), and was here to discuss future JPAC engagements in India.

Ambassador Roemer congratulates India on its sixty-fourth Independence Day

August 13, 2010

Condolences to the government and people of India on Leh flooding

August 11, 2010 Ambassador Roemer offered his heart-felt condolences to all those who lost loved ones in the devastating floods in the Choglumsar area near Leh in Ladakh. "As always, the U.S. stands solidly beside India in its hour of grief."

Ambassador Roemer with Under Secretary of Defense for Policy Michèle Flournoy

August 9, 2010 Under Secretary of Defense for Policy Michèle Flournoy met with Ambassador Timothy J. Roemer in New Delhi. Flournoy is in the Indian capital to meet with various government officials and strategic thinkers.

More on U.S.-India Strategic Cooperation