a. This is the perfect vehicle for a person with a lot of friends. Eight people can comfortably fit inside. With the large windows, everybody has a view of the city as you drive around town to your destination.

b. This truck is for the man on the move. With the large space in the back, you can carry surfboards, snow skis, a tent, and so on. With 4 wheel drive and an extra gas tank, this truck won't stop until your energy level does. So, if you are highly active, buy this one.

c. If you buy this car, I hope you don't have many friends. This car is definitely for someone who is not sociable, because, well, it's so ugly! It does, however, have a lot of space for cargo, and with the sirens, it can get you someplace quickly.

d. This truck will roll over anything that gets in its way. Its perfect for city life with a lot of traffic! Don't stop and wait, just go over it! Ha! Ha!

e. This old taxicab is perfect for the jokester. Pick up people, take them somewhere and drop them off – even if it's not their destination! You may even make some money.

f. This super-safe station wagon is great for someone who wants to be known as easy-going, sensitive, and intelligent.

g. This little car is made for those people who love touching! Why? It's so small that is just enough room for two people. Also this car has no heater, so in wintertime, the only way to stay warm is to cuddle up with the other person in the car.
