Concert to celebrate the Daniel Pearl World Music Days

Shohat meets Ptashka: Classic meets Jazz

Sunday, October 17, 2010 at 8 p.m.
Tel Aviv Museum
27 Shaul Ha-Melech Ave., Tel Aviv

The U.S. Embassy is pleased to invite the public to a unique concert in memory of Daniel Pearl, an American journalist and musician, kidnapped and murdered by terrorists in 2002.

Two outstanding Israeli pianists, Gil Shohat and Leonid Ptashka, will perform together, each bringing his own style and interpretation of classical and jazz pieces.

The concert will be held at the Tel Aviv Museum and will feature the World premiere of “Izkor” composed by Gil Shohat and Leonid Ptashka in memory of Daniel Pearl.

The concert is a gift of the U.S Embassy to the city of Tel Aviv-Yaffo.

Admission is free, but prior reservations must be made. Please send an email to TLVPDPE@state.gov no later than October 14 (Please type “Daniel Pearl” in the subject line. Please print out the e-mail confirmation and present it at the entrance of the Tel Aviv Museum).
