

UNITED STATES
MEMORIAL
HOLocaust
MUSEUM

Special program for International Holocaust Remembrance Day

The Search for Muslims
Who Protected Jews in North Africa

Khaled Abdulwahab sheltered Jews in Tunisia during WWII

7:00 p.m. Wednesday, January 26, 2011
The American Center, 19 Keren Hayesod, Jerusalem

Moderator:
Srinivas Kulkarni, Director, The American Center

Opening Remarks:
Hilary Olsin-Windecker, Counselor for Press and Cultural Affairs, Embassy of the United States
Prof. Yom Tov Assis, Chairman, Ben-Zvi Institute
Genya Markon, Curatorial Consultant (Israel) USHMM

Premiere Screening in Israel: Among the Righteous
A film by Robert Satloff

The history of the Holocaust in Europe is well-documented, but the history of what happened to the Jews in North Africa is little known. The truth is remarkable: not only did Jews in Muslim lands suffer many of the same elements of persecution as Jews in Europe - arrests, deportations, confiscations and forced labor - but there were also Muslims who reached out to protect them.
[English, 56 min.]

Commentary:
Dr. Haim Saadoun, Director of the Documentation Center of North African Jewry during WWII
Dr. Robert Satloff, Director of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy (from the US via digital video conference)

Discussion Following

R.S.V.P. by Jan. 21, 2011
The Documentation Center 02-5398844; 02-5398869
tamarf@ybz.org.il / www.ybz.org.il