Fulbright Master Degree Fellowships

Five Master's fellowships will be awarded to outstanding students planning to begin Master's degree studies at American universities in the fall semester of the 2016/2017 academic year.

The fellowships provide tuition and a maintenance allowance for a maximum period of two years.

The program is open to candidates in all fields of study, except business administration and fields in which hands-on contact with patients is required, such as medicine, dental medicine, veterinary medicine and nursing.

Students who have already been awarded Bachelor's degrees and students who will complete their Bachelor's degree studies during the 2014/2015 academic year are eligible to apply.

Candidates must be Israeli citizens. Dual American-Israeli citizens or permanent residents of the United States are not eligible to apply.

Deadline date for submission of applications: 31 March, 2015
